

November 2017

Please listen to the recording first. Then read the following tasks. Send your answers to both tasks by 30th November 11:59 a.m. to the following address. (<mailto:marshallova@gynome.cz>) Please include the answer to Task B in a separate file as an attachment (mp3 format).

TASK A: Identify the next location of David's pilgrimage. The given hints on the recording may help you.

TASK B: Imagine you and your friends are interviewing soldiers who survived this historical event. Write a script and record an interview in an MP3 format. The audio should be approx. 3 minutes long. You can also include some sound effects to make your interview sound more real.

The interview may include the following ideas: find out about the soldiers' background / feelings / how they survived / a message for future generations / etc. The quotations below may help you picture this event.

Please, keep in mind your story will also be presented by your team in the final round of the competition in the Czech Republic. Therefore you may want to make your recording as interesting as possible.

Quotations:

„We shall not flag or fail. We shall go on to the end. We shall fight in France, we shall fight on the seas and oceans, we shall fight with growing confidence and growing strength in the air, we shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be, we shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender.”
Winston S. Churchill

Tommy: „We shall go on to the end. We shall fight in France, we shall fight on the seas and oceans, we shall fight with growing confidence and growing strength in the air. We shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be...”

Alex: “What?”

Tommy: „We shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be. We shall fight on the beaches. We shall fight on the landing grounds. We shall fight in the fields and in the streets. We shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender. and even if this Island or a large part of it were subjugated and starving, then our Empire beyond the seas, armed and guarded by the British Fleet, would carry on the struggle, until, in God's good time, the New World, with all its power and might, steps forth to the rescue and the liberation of the old.”
