Učební materiál

Sada: Kultura a realie anglických mluvících zemí

Téma: Christmas – Wish List

Autor: David Marshall, B.A.

Předmět: Anglický jazyk

Ročník: 1.-3. ročníky - VG

Využití: Učební materiál pro výuku anglického jazyka

Anotace: The worksheet can be used when learning about culture of the United Kingdom and the United States. Students hear about a Christmas Wish List from a young girl in the USA. The tasks focus on listening comprehension, speaking skills, and creative thinking.

Creating a Christmas wish list is a very special part of the holiday season for children and adults alike.

Putting your hopes and dreams on paper, and knowing that Christmas is the time of year when these wishes could actually come true, brings an aura of magic to this very special holiday season.

Whether it's a letter for Santa Claus or Jezisek, the wish list adds to the excitement and anticipation of the season.

I. Marissa Shea, a young American student, has made a YouTube video expressing her wishes for Christmas. Watch the video and listen carefully to answer the following questions.

1. Why has Marissa been gone from YouTube for a month?
2. What is the first thing on her list?
3. Why does she want this?
4. What books does she want?
5. What is it that she wants from Target that costs only $5?
6. What else does she want and she doesn't care what kind?
7. Marissa says that Christmas, most importantly, is about what?

Answers:

1. She was grounded by her parents
2. an electronic keyboard
3. her piano is broken and she needs to practice
4. the Pretty Little Liars books
5. a full-length mirror
6. Makeup
7. the people you love

II. Look around at your classmates. Based on what you know about them, create a Christmas wish list with presents you think they may need, want, or enjoy. Be creative!
