English speakers from around the world have several occasions when they may be required to take part in a formal dining experience. Typically, formal meals might be included at weddings, anniversaries, or business conferences. However, many families enjoy keeping formalities at important holidays, like Thanksgiving, Christmas, or even Easter, when all the family are together to celebrate.

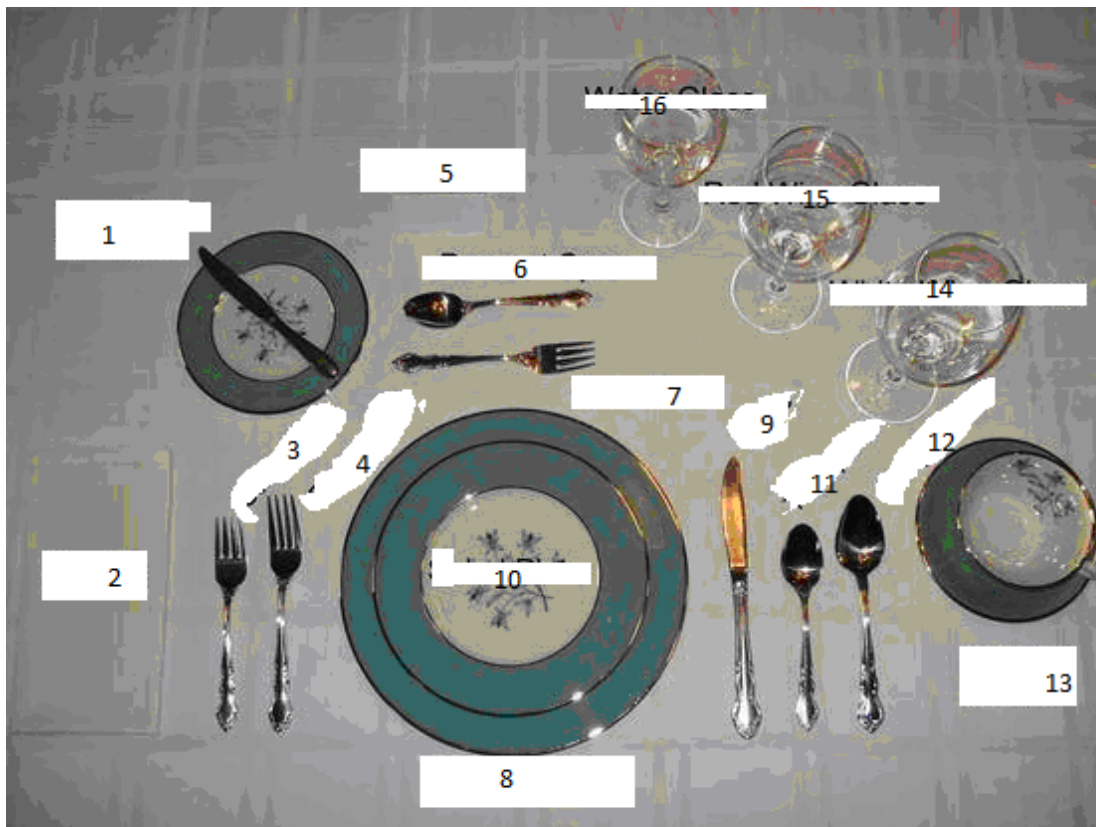

Instructions: Look at the following picture of a formal table-setting. Using the words in the vocabulary list, place the correct piece of tableware in its proper place. Be ready to explain the logic you used to determine where each piece goes.

Place Card
Dinner Plate
Dessert Spoon
Bread plate and knife

Cup and Saucer
Water Glass
White Wine Glass
Knife

Napkin
Dinner Fork
Salad Fork
Cake Fork

Salad Plate
Soup Spoon
Teaspoon
Red Wine Glass
