No More Kings

Rockin' and a-rollin', splishin' and a-splashin', over the horizon, what can it be?

The pilgrims sailed the sea to find a place to call their own. In their ship, ___1___, they hoped to find a better home. They finally knocked on Plymouth Rock. And someone said, \"We're there.\" It may not look like home but at this point I don't care.

Oh they were missing Mother England; they swore their ___2___ until the very end. Anything you say, King, it's OK, King, you know it's kinda scary on your own. Gonna build a new land the way we planned. Could you help us run it 'till it's grown?

They planted ___3___, you know they built their houses one by one, and bit by bit they worked until the ___4___ were done. They looked around, yeah up and down, and someone said, \"Hurray!\" If the king could see us now he would be proud of us today.

They knew they run their own land, but George the Third still vowed he'd rule them 'till the end. Anything I say, do it my way now. Anything I say, do it my way. Don't you get to feelin' independent 'cause I'm gonna force you to ___5___.

Hey taxed their property, he didn't give them any choice, and back in England, he didn't give them any ___6___. (That's called taxation without representation, and it's not fair!) But when the colonies complained the king said: \"I don't care!\"

He even has the nerve to tax our cup of tea. To put it kindly, King, we really don't agree.

Gonna show you how we feel. We're gonna dump this tea, and make this ___7___ into the biggest cup of tea in history!

They wanted no more Mother England. They knew the time had come for them to take command. It's very clear you're being ___8___, King, no matter what you say, we won't obey. Gonna hold a ___9___ now, King, and we're gonna run it all our way with no more kings....

We're gonna elect a ___10___! (No more kings!)
 He's gonna do what the people want! (No more kings!)
 We're gonna run things our way! (No more kings!)
 Nobody's gonna tell us what to do!

Rockin' and a-rollin', splishin' and a-splashin', over the horizon, what can it be? Looks like it's going to be a free country

The song introduces the idea that the American colonists, at first, considered themselves to be loyal subjects to the British monarch. They believed, since they had basically been left alone to manage their own affairs since the beginning of colonization, they had a right to continue to be left alone. When the British parliament passed a series of taxes, such as the famous Tea Tax, the Americans felt their rights had been ignored. The colonists used the cry, “No taxation without representation” as their motto to persuade King George III to abolish those taxes and let them manage their own affairs again. When the Americans realized that the King was not going to change things in their favor, they decided that it was time for “No More Kings.”

Rockin' and a-rollin', splishin' and a-splashin', over the horizon, what can it be?

The pilgrims sailed the sea to find a place to call their own. In their ship, Mayflower, they hoped to find a better home. They finally knocked on Plymouth Rock. And someone said, \"We're there.\" It may not look like home but at this point I don't care.

Oh they were missing Mother England; they swore their loyalty until the very end. Anything you say, King, it's OK, King, you know it's kinda scary on your own. Gonna build a new land the way we planned. Could you help us run it 'till it's grown?

They planted corn, you know they built their houses one by one, and bit by bit they worked until the colonies were done. They looked around, yeah up and down, and someone said, \"Hurray!\" If the king could see us now he would be proud of us today.

They knew they run their own land, but George the Third still vowed he'd rule them 'till the end. Anything I say, do it my way now. Anything I say, do it my way. Don't you get to feelin' independent 'cause I'm gonna force you to obey.

Hey taxed their property, he didn't give them any choice, and back in England, he didn't give them any voice. (That's called taxation without representation, and it's not fair!) But when the colonies complained the king said: \"I don't care!\"

He even has the nerve to tax our cup of tea. To put it kindly, King, we really don't agree.

Gonna show you how we feel. We're gonna dump this tea, and make this harbor into the biggest cup of tea in history!

They wanted no more Mother England. They knew the time had come for them to take command. It's very clear you're being unfair, King, no matter what you say, we won't obey. Gonna hold a revolution now, King, and we're gonna run it all our way with no more kings....

We're gonna elect a president! (No more kings!)
He's gonna do what the people want! (No more kings!)
We're gonna run things our way! (No more kings!)
Nobody's gonna tell us what to do!
